FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, MEMPHIS, May 11, 1870. FINANCE.

Exchange is again steady, and dealers are getting all they want at the new rate established yesterday. The fact is that the offerings are rather large for the present close condition of the money market, and to-day we heard for the first time for some months of currency being ordered to this point. Eastern cotton bills are taken at 1/2 discount, and as a rule our banks are checking at 1/2 premium, but a small rebate is made when a large amount is wanted.

In stocks and bonds there is nothing to established yesterday. The fact is that TRADE.

The weather is again beautiful and warm, and piantation work goes on with vigor. Few country people are in the city, and business is mostly done through the medium of orders. We have no ma terial change to note in prices to-day, as the domand is generally light to what it has been for the past two or three days. Corn is a fraction weaker, but not quote bly lower; and meats, also, are somewhat easier than yesterday, owing to the light demand. Phillips' last Cincinnati provision circular says: "Since mine of the 3d the market for provisions continued to advance, and the demand was fair until yesterday, when it seemed to have culminated and at the close was more quiet, and to day it partakes of the same feeling in a stronger way on most articles, and holders are more willing to let go a portion of their stock, but buyers are rather tion of their stock, but buyers are rather offish, thinking that the long continued and still intermediate points with the new advancing prices may have reached their DARDEN SIJE.
